

Materials Used:

- 1 sheet of Cosmo Cricket's Sunday Picnic
- 1 sheet of Cosmo Cricket's Bloomers
- 1 sheet of Creative Imaginations paper (calendar)
- 2 sheets of yellow cardstock
- packet of Bazzill Half the Edge cardstock strips
- red buttons
- Heart/ticket embellishment
- Tim Holtz Distess Ink in Red Brick

Instructions:

1. Cut the Cosmo Crickets papers:

2. From the Creative Imaginations sheet, cut out the "a week in my life" journaling block.
3. Ink the edges of each strip.
4. Assemble the strips on the two pieces of yellow cardstock, per the picture.
5. Add your photos on top of the green 4x6 blocks.
6. Adhere Bazzill edge strips and the heart/ticket embellishment.
7. Cut out additional flowers from the remainder of the Bloomers paper and affix to the layout, adding buttons.

Options:

You can replace the Bazzill strips with strips cut from the remainder of the Sunday Picnic sheet, using about a $\frac{3}{4}$ " strip or a border punch. I used red ink and accents, but green, yellow or white would work equally well.
